Unabashedly Christian in his perspective, Metaxas highlights God's providence. Games and toys were made out of scraps and things that were not needed. It is truly a miracle that the Pilgrims find a native who spoke their language, understood their customs and their predicament, and wanted to help them learn to survive in the New World.

This is a true story about American history and a young 12-year-old boy, Squanto, a historical and emotional tale of the miracle of Thanksgiving.
