L'epistolario di Marco Mortara. We read in Pilgrimage to the Holy Land by the French Romantic poet Alphonse de Lamartine : All the costumes of the inhabitants or the travelers who animate the roads are picturesque and strange. The Reconquista of Spain, or the unification of Spain under Christian rule, was not completed until the reign of Ferdinand and Isabella, when Granada was captured from the Moors on January 2, JesustheChristlivedduringthetimeoftheHerodians,whoservedasvassalk There she recounted her ride on the back of a camel, and her climb up the side of a pyramid with the help of local guides. Therefore, a widely shared premillennial sentiment in search of renewing the Church created the image of the Holy Land as the natural actor and signifier for this task. Art, Land and Voyage, ed.
