I'm a fan of novels set in the Victorian period, and thought I knew a little bit about how Victorian people lived as a result. Dark colors like jet black, black-brown, or dark brown are very essential to this look. I generally read nonfiction for information, not with the expectation of pleasure.

Cervical Manipulation. For example: Hannah Cullwick fitted her morning wash in just before she cooked the family breakfast, often making use of the kitchen facilities. If I were a historian or writing something about the Victorian age, I would keep this book handy as a reference because it gave such a good overview of daily life.
