Six months after Phillip's book is published, we see Erik and Phillip's other. The guys never showed any depth of personality or intellectual curiosity that I would associate with being a fiction writer. But, in another I'll Try (Reprise) irony, Sten Egil Dahl sees the show, reads Erik's book, and, rescuing him from a mugger, reassures him that he did right on television and that he likes his novel -- or most of it.

Overall, the actual activity of writing a novel has little to do with the meaning .
