But the miners were worse off than the employers. Ronges, John Miner, ca. Sanger died because of an alleged workplace grievance, while Uren, who boarded with the Sanger family, was slain to eliminate him as a witness.

Mitchell told them that if the pumpmen, firemen and engineers, who kept them in operation, were not satisfied with the mine, they would stop working. The mission statement was changed to read: Police Service with Professionalism. The only department of the plant which is now in operation is the coal crusher and washer.

Former civilian PennDOT inspectors were transferred to the Department, also include the Chief Engineer. In the coal towns, they suffered the prejudice of English and Welsh coal operators.
