Those songs still follow me, to deepen my hatred of slavery, and quicken my sympathies for my brethren in bonds. The Civil Rights Act of 1867, instead of being a moderate course between black suffrage and white domination in the extreme, was in essence an enabler to the extremes.

In regard to the time of my birth, I cannot be as definite as I have been respecting the past. Consequently, young people often experience the struggle for material survival resulting in frustration and resentment.

Under Washington's administration Gouverneur Morris had been for some time minister to France, but he was greatly disliked by the anarchical group that then misruled that country.

The trial of John Peter Zenger, at New York, had vindicated the freedom of the press. When he was going he wished me to stay on board the Preston, to learn the French horn; but the ship being ordered for Turkey I could not think of leaving my master, to whom I was very warmly attached; and I told him if he left me behind it would break my heart.
